Dingley Falls By Michael Malone

"Dingley Falls" is Michael Malone's expansive tribute to Matthew Arnold's poem, "Dover Beach" (Dover Beach and Other Poems). Well, that, and a wacky soap opera of a novel concerning: biological warfare, thwarted and forbidden love, vengeance and forgiveness, corrupt and psychopathic government ...

Dingley Falls by Michael Malone | NOOK Book (eBook ...

Malone (The Delectable Mountains, Painting the Roses Red) remains a talented but skittery writer who can't quite seem to commit himself or marshal his forces: here he tackles a Peyton-Place-ish situation with sturdy professionalism but feels the need to hedge his bets, undercutting the central material with heavy-going satire. Dingley Falls is a Republican, largely WASP town in eastern ...

Michael Malone Michael Malone is the literate and compassionate voice of the new American South. Critically acclaimed as one of the country's finest writers, his great gift for crafting remarkable and enduring comedies, as he did in Handling Sin, Dingley Falls and Foolscap, is matched only by his ability to deliver riveting suspense and mystery.
