Hunger Games 4th

The Hunger Games universe is a fictional world appearing in The Hunger Games trilogy written by American author Suzanne Collins. It consists primarily of the fictional nation of Panem, its Capitol where the totalitarian government resides, and the outlying districts, numbered 1 to 12, each with a different economy. The Capitol also like to watch children kill each other.

In politics, humanitarian aid, and social science, hunger is a condition in which a person, for a sustained period, is unable to eat sufficient food to meet basic nutritional needs. So in the field of hunger relief, the term hunger is used in a sense that goes beyond the common desire for food that all humans experience.. Throughout history, portions of the world's population have often ...

In literature, theme refers to the main idea or moral of the story. Sometimes this main idea or moral is stated directly, and sometimes the reader has to think about the main idea. In most literary works, there could be more than one theme. Novels and plays, especially, are long enough that different readers could pick up on different thematic ideas throughout.
