The Race for Paris is historical fiction at its finest! Meg Waite Clayton's account of WWII through the eyes of a female writer and a female photographer is engaging and unique. The plot lines wrapped up a bit quickly for my taste, but that is a minor detail in the context of this well written book.

"[Clayton's] THRILLING new novel, The Race for Paris, is the story of two ambitious women in World War II. Journalist Jane Tyler and photographer Olivia "Liv" Harper are determined to become the first female American war correspondents to cover the liberation of Paris, and Clayton makes the race to get there a DANGEROUS, FAST-MOVING ADVENTURE." —Georgia Rowe, The San Jose Mercury News

The Race for Paris - Meg Waite Clayton

THE RACE FOR PARIS is an amazing story of friendship and courage, and Meg Waite Clayton paints such a poignant picture of these three individuals that I found myself holding my breath waiting for the inevitable to occur.
